BESPOKE TEAM ACTIVITIES

WORLD CUP BREAKFAST & STADIUM TOUR AT THE AVIVA STADIUM

A relaxed breakfast event during the World cup with a past player for a Q&A and pre-match commentary.

Why not dine in our restaurant on the pitch or let us transform the changing rooms.

We'll organise a VIP tour at the home of Irish rugby.

See how the players experience the stadium on match day, visit the changing rooms, the media centre, and walking onto the pitch.

HOST RESTAURANT TAKE OVER

Exclusively take over HOST restaurant for up to 30 guests.

We could arrange a bespoke menu and wine pairing created especially for you and your colleagues or clients.

Enjoy a breakfast, lunch or dinner in one of the hardest restaurants to get a reservation in!

We can also bring HOST to you in an unusual location of your choice.

HORSE RIDING / CLAY PIDGIN SHOOTING

An afternoon of horse riding and or clay pidgin shooting in the rural surroundings of Kildare, just outside Dublin city.

And then, make your way back to the city while stopping off in some hidden gem pubs with fires lit and live music.

A GOLF CLINIC WITH SHANE LOWRY

Host a golf day out with PGA golfer Shane Lowry in a club of your choice.

We have connections in courses all over Ireland.

Hear tips from the 2019 Open winner at the driving range before teeing off to play 18 holes while he critiques each player's swing.

THE WILD ATLANTIC WAY

Known for its breath-taking views and scenery, we can tailor your visit from 5 star hotels to as many or a few activities as you would like.

Stretching from Malin Head in Donegal, right down to Mizen head in Cork, Ireland's coastline is an incredible destination for fishing, surfing, dolphin watching, a gastronomic tour, cycling or a visit to the Aran Islands.

LIVING LEGENDS TOUR

A guided tour around the National Stud to meet some of the most successful race horses of all time globally.

Beef or Salmon, Hardy Eustace, Hurricane Fly, Kicking King, and Rite Of Passage.

We can tailor your tour to be from a champion jockey so you hear the real stories from the track and weigh room!

DINNER IN AN UNUSUAL LOCATION

Why not let us arrange a dinner to remember?

Dine in one of our favourite obscure locations, perhaps;-

A private room in Trinity College, dinner in a dome at the Blessington Lakes or a suite in a 5-star hotel in Dublin.

CYCLE AROUND HOWTH HEAD

Day/half-day cycling trip around Howth Head which is a 20km trip from Dublin's city center.

The cycle will include stunning views of the Irish coastline, a local brewery tour and beer tasting, as well as lunch provided in one of Dublin's finest fresh seafood restaurants.

The recently completed cycle path from the city to the coast makes for an enjoyable ride no matter what level of fitness you have.

ZIP-LINING IN THE DUBLIN MOUNTAINS

Experience panoramic views of the city from high in the Dublin Mountains.

Full or half day trips can be organised which include zip-lining through some of Ireland's oldest forests, followed by a pint of Guinness, BBQ and traditional Irish music at The Blue Light, one of Dublin's best known pubs.

INTIMATE IRISH WHISKEY DINNER

Our knowledgeable Irish Whiskey ambassador will bring your guests on a journey through the distilleries of Ireland, tasting some of the finest whiskey that the country has to offer.

The evening will include an educational history of whiskey production on the island, followed by a whiskey and food pairing in an authentic location in Dublin's city center.

DUBLIN PUB LITERARY TOUR

Take a tour of Dublin through the eyes of some of the world's greatest literary geniuses such as James Joyce, Brendan Behan, or Patrick Kavanagh.

This evening excursion will wind through the streets of Dublin, dropping into some great pubs where the writers drank, with actors playing their part and regaling lines from their work at each stop.

WINDMILL LANE RECORDING STUDIO

Nothing brings people together quite like a sing-song.

This experience is an educational walking tour of the gentrified Grand Canal area, where participants will be invited to spray-paint on the famous walls of the Windmill Lane Studios.

After this, we'll head in to the recording studio and the team will work together to record a track using instruments and vocals, no matter what level, to create something truly unique.

LITERARY BIKE TOUR OF DUBLIN

Take a tour around Dublin City on an old school period-styled bicycle, visiting various locations of literary significance.

Including the museum at Trinity College; Merrion Square, where the Oscar Wilde statue sits; James Kavanagh by the Grand Canal; and many more locations featured in James Joyce's Ulysses.

This tour will be led by city historians, with the group being split into teams to collect different pieces of information along their journey to keep things interesting

IRISH GOLF TOURS

Play golf on the best links courses in the world, some of which are just 20 minutes from Dublin city center like Portmarknock, Royal Dublin, and The Island Golf Club.

We'll arrange tee-time booking, transport and organisation of the entire day including competitions, personalised golf equipment, and memorable prizes for your guests.

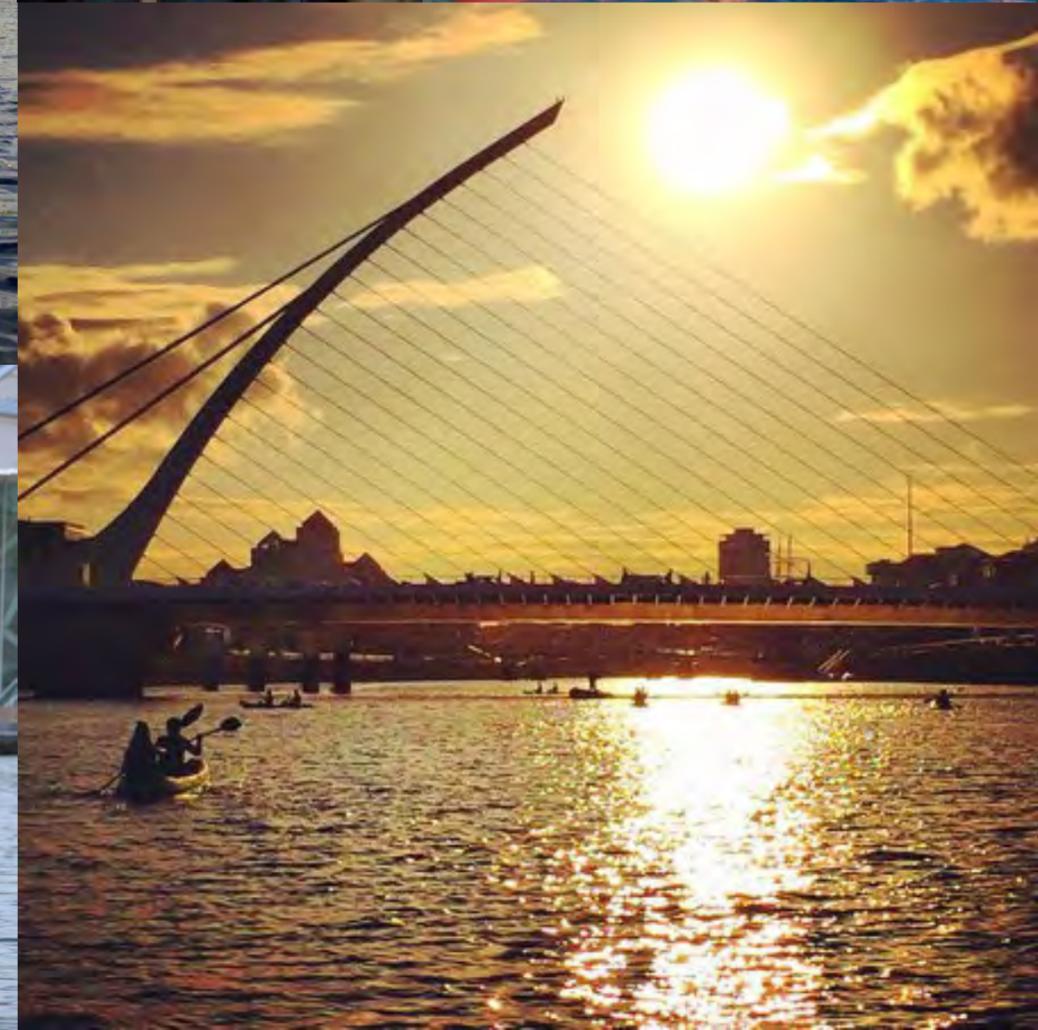

WATER SPORTS IN GRAND CANAL DOCK

Enjoy a sunny afternoon on the water in Dublin's Grand Canal Dock.

Our tailor made tours include options for kayaking, stand-up paddle boarding, or kite surfing in the dock or an additional option to go up the River Liffey.

After the watersports, guests will be brought to Mediterranean style restaurant, Charlotte Quay, to enjoy great food, drinks and an amazing unbeatable view.

CULINARY CLASS & SOMMELIER COURSE

Take a full day, or afternoon, to learn from some of the best chefs in Dublin about cooking with Irish produce in world class facilities.

Our fun filled classes put teams against each other in a Come Dine With Me style game which everyone enjoys.

The evening will continue with a wine and cheese pairing seminar conducted by our resident sommelier.

SECRETS OF THE 1916 RISING

Relive the history of Ireland's independence at some of the most famous sites in the country, learning about the nation's tough times and how the first government was formed.

The day will involve visits to the GPO, Kilmainham Gaol and secret hiding spots used by the rebels at the time.

That evening we will host a 1916 themed banquet dinner in one of Henrietta Street's finest Georgian Houses.

MURDER MYSTERY GALA DINNER

Have fun while catching a killer in our murder mystery themed dinner party.

The evening of excitement can work with intimate small groups, ranging up to 70 guests at a time.

Our dinner party is hosted on one of Dublin's most famous ships and can be scaled up with entertainment or down to a cocktail party depending on your needs.

Our trained actors will make it an evening to remember.

PONTOON PICNIC AT GRAND CANAL DOCK

Host an entire afternoon right in the heart of Grand Canal Dock on our custom built pontoon.

We've built a boutique structure which includes tables, chairs, and gourmet picnic baskets for you to enjoy the sunshine as boats whiz past in the capitol's busy waterway

SAILING & BBQ AT DUN LAOGHAIRE HARBOUR

Dun Laoghaire boasts some of the most magnificent views of Dublin Bay, especially from the sea itself.

It doesn't matter what your level of sailing ability is, we'll ensure each boat has experienced instructors to lead the way for your guests.

This activity can be enjoyed over a full or half day of sailing; which includes an education session before setting sail on the sea.

After the aquatics are complete, guests will be hosted at a gourmet barbecue and drinks reception at the yacht club which has stunning views over the harbour itself.
